

MONICA ARAUJO - ENGLISH FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES

Master Drilling List: Class 19 (Spatial Design & Job Site)

Phonetic Challenges (Focus: Contrast)

01. Be careful: it's a corner, not a piece of corn. (/ˈkɔːnər/ vs /kɔːn/)
02. This tough week taught me a lot about spatial design. (/tʊf/ vs /tɔːt/)
03. The sink is slowly sinking due to the heavy fixtures. (/sɪŋk/ vs /sɪŋkɪŋ/)

Technical Drilling (Prepositions & Vocabulary)

04. I have a migraine because the site was too loud today.
05. There were serious leakings at several fixtures in the operating room.
06. Where is the emergency exit in the blueprint?
07. The furniture specification must be in the layout.
08. All electrical fittings are located behind the patient's bed.
09. We need more clearance between the wall and the medical equipment.
10. The new backup generator is at the construction site entrance.
11. Most high-end medical devices are made in Brazil now.
12. The nurse station is positioned opposite the elevators.
13. You can find the HVAC ducts above the suspended ceiling.
14. Please, check the air exchange rate in the storage area.
15. The technical shaft is next to the dirty utility room.
16. Among all these projects, the San Lucas expansion is the toughest.
17. The scrub sink is in the sterile corridor.

18. Put the floor plan on the table for the meeting.
19. The structural columns are under the concrete slab.
20. Don't worry, the issue with the leak is already being fixed.